

BANDERA | VENTURES

Charles Anderson

Bandera Ventures
5820 W. Northwest Highway, Suite 200
Dallas, Texas 75225
canderson@banderaventures.com

o 214.378.8200
f 214.378.8202

Charles Anderson founded Bandera Ventures with Pryor Blackwell and Thomas Leiser in May 2003. The Partners have over 85 years' experience in commercial real estate encompassing in excess of 50 million square feet of development and acquisitions throughout the United States. Bandera's business strategy is centered around a focus on industrial development and acquisitions, office development and acquisitions, and long-term lease opportunities. In addition to real estate development and investment, Bandera actively invests in Oil and Gas and private equity transactions.

He earned his BBA (1983) and MBA (1984) from Southern Methodist University where he graduated summa cum laude. Mr. Anderson is active in the World Presidents Organization, Watermark Community Church and serves on the Board of Directors for Triumph Savings bank, Highwood Properties, Quintess, Central Distributors, Inc., Behind Every Door Ministries and The Cooper Institute. He is a former Board Member of The Real Estate Council, East West Ministries and was voted one of Forty Under Forty Businessman in Dallas by the Dallas Business Journal.

Prior to founding Bandera Ventures, Mr. Anderson was associated with the Trammell Crow Company for over 16 years. Prior to his departure, Mr. Anderson was Senior Executive Director, responsible for the Development and Investment Group for the Western United States. He served on both the Executive and Operating Committees.

Mr. Anderson lives in Dallas with his wife, Kimberly and two daughters, Bailey and Ashley.